Dear John:

On the occasion of your retirement as a staff employee of the Central Intelligence Agency, I want to join your many friends and colleagues in expressing best wishes for the years ahead.

For fifteen of your over thirty-two years of service to our country we have been privileged to count you as a member of our staff. In your capacity as a senior officer you have participated in many difficult and important negotiations for the Agency. Your devotion to duty and record of achievement are indeed matters of which you may be justly proud.

Please accept my personal appreciation, as also that of the Agency, for a job well done.

Sincerely,

R. L. Bannerman
Deputy Director
for Support
